The YCH grant includes an iterative process that gathered feedback from previous grantees to help the program better reflect youth cultural heritage in Alaska and to make future projects more dynamic. This YCH project diagram is provided to help you consider how you will integrate these three components into your project and project application.

- Past Present Future aspects:
  - Intergenerational Transmission of integral elements of culture

- Youth Cultural Heritage

- Focus on expression of cultural heritage through the arts:
  - oration, language, theater, dance, visual arts, etc.

- Time and space for youth reflection on culture and heritage:
  - what it means to them and how will they carry forward aspects of their culture into their future lives
